

If its on, its in. Coming Soon... is the monthly movie magazine you've been waiting for. Our resident movie expert TC Candler puts his own spin on what's hot and what's not, in Hollywood and at home. Check out TC's website independentcritics.com.

Welcome ▶▶

Welcome to our first edition of Coming Soon, the new monthly supplement which tells you everything you need to know about what's coming up on the silver screen. Our film buff, TC Candler, has all the inside info on the stars, the movies and the gossip from tinseltown and beyond.

There'll be celebrity profiles – starting this month with Hollywood's hottest property, the beautiful Keira Knightley, indepth previews of all the blockbuster movies as well as a round up of all the current DVD releases, all with our own star rating so that you can see at a glance whether we think its a hit or a miss. And watch out for TC's Top 10 list every month. If you make it onto the list, your definitely rocking.

WIN
Comingsoon Exclusive,
 WE HAVE 10 COPIES OF
 THE DVD, "CRASH"
 TO GIVE AWAY

The rumor mill

A NEW JAMES BOND!

Daniel Craig has been announced as the newest member of the most exclusive movie club in the world. He is the next James Bond. Following in the enormous footsteps of Sean Connery, Roger Moore, Pierce Brosnan and the slightly more minuscule footsteps of Timothy Dalton, Craig has promised to "take the series somewhere it's never gone before". He beat out frontrunners Clive Owen and Hugh Jackman for the coveted part. His first Bond adventure, "Casino Royale", is currently in pre-production and will start shooting in December.

KING KONG TOO LONG?

Peter Jackson, who helmed the "Lord of the Rings" trilogy, is currently editing his newest Christmas time blockbuster, "King Kong". Universal recently expressed shock at the proposed running length set forth by Jackson at more than three butt-numbing hours. They were apparently expecting Jackson to trim the film down to a reasonable two and a half hours. However, Jackson has built up enough clout after the mega-success of his recent films and will get his way. Three hours it is! But as they say... No good film can be too long, just as no bad one can be too short.